Become a conscientious consumer:

- Buy refurbished electronics to decrease demand of the minerals used in production, which are mined by children & slaves.
- Buy Fair Trade products whenever possible. Fair trade products are certified that no slaves were used in the making of the item.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE! TAKE ACTION AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

To encourage systemic changes:

- *In Kansas: Support House bill 2184 Massage Therapist Licensure Act
- Inform your state representatives that you support Safe Harbor laws and the ability to expunge criminal records for victims
- Inform the store manager where you shop that you buy fair trade products
- Speak up social justice issues, as injustices and disparities increase vulnerabilities which traffickers prey upon

Download and Use These Apps:

Ban Human Trafficking – Learn about trafficking by choosing your avatar and make choices that keep you safe or lead to you becoming a trafficked person – great for all ages 10 & up. Sponsored by the European Union.

ei Traffickcam – Help build a data base to assist law enforcement in recognition of hotel rooms, leading to interception of people advertised online for sex from hotels. It takes 1 minute to open app, snap 4 pictures of your hotel room and submit hotel name and room number.

Ethical Barcode: Scan the barcode of a potential product and trace the 'slavery footprint'.

Sweat & Toil - U.S. Labor Department Learn about goods that are made with, child labor, forced labor and forced child labor (trafficking). Search by product or country.
